2. About the data collected by PanTera

A variety of (personal) data is needed for providing services, such as operating the PanTera Website and the various functions thereof. As different visitors use different services, available on the PanTera Website, various categories of Personal Data are collected and processed. Regardless of the specificities of the services, PanTera does not rely on any fully automated processing for decision-making.

Purposes and Legal Bases of Data Processing

Your personal data is collected, processed and shared fairly and lawfully and for specified purposes. These purposes and respective legal bases are set out below:

- PanTera or a third party has a legitimate interest to process the personal data and this legitimate interest is judged not to affect Your rights and freedoms in a significant way. If necessary, PanTera can also use Your personal data to protect its rights and freedoms of third parties, such as in the event of infringement of intellectual property rights;
- You have given PanTera Your consent to process Your personal data. It is the case for example when You submit a message via the contact form or apply on the career page.

In such cases PanTera collects and processes Your personal data, allowing us exclusively to provide you our services, process Your request(s) and respond thereto.

Only the abovementioned cases may constitute a personal data processing on our Website.

As soon as You access the PanTera Website, some general information will be collected automatically. This data is stored in the so-called server log files and includes:

- Access status;
- Computer's operating system;
- Date and time of access;
- Domain name of Internet Service Provider;
- IP address of the requesting computer;
- Transferred data volume;
- Web browser type;
- Website from which access is made;
- Pages viewed during session;
- Bounce rate .

The collection and processing of these data are technically indispensable for the correct delivery of the Website contents You have requested. In order to provide us with relevant information on Your activity on the Website, such information is statistically evaluated by us in order to optimize Website presence as well as the underlying technology.

Visitors of www.pantera-life.com

This section applies to (personal) data that PanTera collects and processes when You visit the PanTera Website and/or use their tools and plugins. In this section, "You" and "Your" refer to Visitors of website link.

The Website is hosted by Amazon Web Services (AWS) in France.

Information we collect

Additionally to the general information, data is collected when You use one or more tools and plugins of the Website.

Information collected by the website:

- Via the Contact form: first name, last name, email address, message, date of contact
➔ We (PanTera) use this information in order to respond to the user's message

Additional tools and plugins

Information collected by the website:

- Via Google Analytics: Session duration, Pages viewed per session, Bounce rate, IP address, Date of session, etc.
➔ We (PanTera) use this data to analyse and improve the website user experience

About Google Analytics

PanTera Website uses Google Analytics, a web analytics service offered by Google Inc. (“Google”). Google Analytics uses so-called “cookies” – text files saved to Your computer that make it possible to analyse how You are using the Website. The information generated by the cookie about Your activities on Website will usually be transmitted to a Google server in the United States and stored there. However, as we have enabled IP address anonymization on our Website, Your IP address will be truncated by Google within Member States of the European Union or other member states of the European Economic Area (EEA) before being transmitted to the United States. Only in exceptional situations will Your full IP address be transmitted to a Google server in the United States and truncated there. On behalf of the owner of this Website, IBA, Google will use this information for evaluating Your use of Website, for generating website activity reports and for providing other services related to Website and internet usage to the website owner. The IP address transmitted by Your browser as part of Google Analytics will not be combined with any other data held by Google.

You can block the storage of cookies by making the appropriate settings in Your browser; but bear in mind, however, that You may no longer be able to make full use of all functions provided by Website when doing so. Furthermore, You can prevent Google from collecting information about Your use of Website (including Your IP address) by means of cookies and from processing such information by downloading and installing the browser plugin available here.

You can also prevent Google Analytics from collecting data by clicking on the following link. An opt-out cookie is set that prevents future collection on Your data to visit the Website. For more information on terms of use and Google’s privacy policy, please click here.

3. Security, transfer of data, sharing and data retention

Security

PanTera and its partners have dedicated security teams. Your personal data is secured by appropriate technical and organisational measures against unauthorised or unlawful handling, and against accidental loss, destruction or damage.

More concretely, the transfer of data from/to the website is encrypted. PanTera uses HTTPS transfer protocols, always associated to the last encryption protocols. Moreover, we use content encryption when You contact us via our contact form. PanTera is the sole party who can decrypt those data.

Transfer of data

At PanTera we make sure that Your personal data is made available only to persons who actually need said data. When we transfer personal data to a third country, we ensure that such transfers are in compliance with applicable data protection laws.

In other words, the protection of Your rights and freedoms remains at the same level, even if Your personal data is processed elsewhere.

Sharing and data retention

The retention period for each of the cookies PanTera uses (whether our own or on our behalf by third parties) is stated in the cookies panel that is opening when arriving on an PanTera Website Cookie Table.

In case You are using specific services, available on the PanTera Website, Your personal data will be retained for as long as necessary for the purpose it was collected or as required by law or contractual obligations. Please note that, due to numerous statutory retention periods, we may be obliged to store data for longer time. In the absence of longer legal retention periods, the data will be routinely deleted upon having fulfilled its intended purpose.

In addition, PanTera may retain Your personal data if we need to use certain data as evidence in legal disputes within the statutory periods of limitation.

When we no longer need personal data, we securely delete or destroy it. Aggregated data, which cannot identify You (and is used for purposes of reporting and analysis) is maintained for as long as commercially necessary.

4. Children and sensitive data

Children

None of PanTera's website services are intentionally directed at children under 16. PanTera does not knowingly collect personal data from anyone under 16 years of age. If PanTera learns upon collection that You are under 16, we will not use or maintain Your personal data. If we become aware that we have unknowingly collected personal data from a child under the age of 16, we will make reasonable efforts to delete such information from our records immediately.

Sensitive data

Sensitive data will be processed if it is manifestly made public by You. Otherwise, we do not aim to process sensitive data.

5. Your Rights

Each visitor of PanTera's Website is entitled to certain rights concerning the processing of his or her personal data under the applicable data protection laws. That being said, You have the possibility to contact PanTera and exercise Your rights. This means in particular:

- You can request information about the existence of the processing of Your personal data and details of the processing, such as:
  - the purposes of the processing;
  - the categories of personal data;
  - the recipients or categories of recipient to whom the personal data have been or will be disclosed;
  - the envisaged period of storing Your data;
  - the existence of further rights You have;
  - about appropriate safeguards, should Your personal data be transferred to a third country;
  - the existence of automated decision-making, including profiling, its functioning and its foreseen consequences.
- You can ask PanTera to rectify inaccurate personal data or complete it, should it be incomplete;

- You can ask the erasure of Your personal data in certain cases (for example, the personal data is no longer necessary to be processed, You withdrew Your consent or personal data has been unlawfully processed);
- In certain circumstances, You may wish to object to the processing of Your personal data, to restrict the processing of Your personal data and/or to request the portability of Your personal data (i.e., transfer and/or extract);
- Whenever PanTera collects and processes Your personal data based on Your consent, You are entitled to withdraw Your consent at any time. Withdrawing consent will only apply to the future and will not affect any prior processing of personal data. Also, it will not affect the processing of Your personal data based on grounds other than Your consent;
- If You believe PanTera has not sufficiently addressed a complaint or concern raised with regard to Your personal data, You have the right to lodge a complaint with a Supervisory Authority about PanTera's collection and processing of Your personal data. For more information, please contact the data protection authority in Your country (contact details for EU Supervisory Authorities are available here).

All requests to exercise any of the rights described above will be treated, and honoured whenever possible, in accordance with applicable data protection laws.

Such requests can be submitted to the following email address: info@pantera-life.com. Alternatively, You may use other channels, listed in Section 1.

6. Cookies

Like any other website, PanTera Website also uses 'cookies'. These cookies are used to store information including visitors' preferences, and the pages on the Website that the visitor accessed or visited. The information is used to optimize Your experience by customizing our web page content based on visitors' browser type and/or other information.

For more information on cookies, please read the PanTera Website Cookie Policy.

To learn which cookies are used by an PanTera Website, please see the cookies panel when arriving on an PanTera Website.

7. Third Party Privacy Policies

PanTera 's Website Privacy Policy does not apply to other advertisers, websites, tools, plugins or cookies. Thus, we are advising You to read carefully the respective Data Protection Policies or Privacy Policies of these third parties for more detailed information. It may include their practices and instructions about how to opt-out of certain options. Please see the relevant parts of Section 2 for the applicable third-party privacy policies.

You can choose to disable cookies through Your individual browser options. To know more detailed information about cookie management with specific web browsers, it can be found at the browsers' respective websites.

8. Updating this Policy

This Website Privacy Policy may be updated from time to time. PanTera will place a prominent notice that will be visible to You. Furthermore, PanTera will always show the date of the latest modification of the Website Privacy Policy at the top of the page so You can tell when it was last revised.

This Website Privacy Policy was last updated on 06 September 2023.
